No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it ye sons of the brave
Whose blood bought the banner yo[illegible] f[illegible] gave

SATURDAY MORNING APRIL 4 1863

By Telegraph

Our dispatches are one day later from the Atlantic States, but contain little of importance, being mostly filled with rumors and the expression of hopes very good in their line, but not very conclusive to anxious minds

An idea is current that the rebels purpose to abandon Virginia and make Kentucky the battle field of the coming season, probably because the resources of the Old Dominion are utterly exhausted, and the wayward sisters think it will be more comfortable to steal the property—the stock and provisions—of Union men in Kentucky, than to starve in the wasted and impoverished fields and towns of Virginia We trust the Union forces will be able to keep them just where they are at least until they are driven into more utter despair and destitution, or beyond these into South Carolina, where we shall not be sorry to hear of such an abomination of desolation as may sicken the rebels and all mankind of the iniquities of rattlesnake rule

The New York price of gold still continues much lower than it has been for several weeks, and may be fairly regarded as a strong proof of reviving confidence.

The English news only refers to the immense rush and excitement which attended the marriage of the Prince of Wales

Next week our dispatches will reach us in four days from San Francisco

City Election.

We are informed that a portion of the City Council claim that by their refusal to make arrangements for the general election the citizens are deprived of any right to elect officers, and the present incumbents propose therefore to hold-over, and it is also stated, that the neglect to provide for an election was part of a scheme to secure this result If this be so, it is a proof of the gross unfitness of those who have engineered the conspiracy to hold any position of public confidence, for it is as much a violation of sworn duty as any act of which lawless and unprincipled men can be guilty. What the motive may be we know not, but whether they feared defeat, or were actuated by other reasons, the fact is plain to the simplest mind, that by their oaths they ought to have complied with the requirements of the charter. They did not do so, and may settle the moral character of such conduct with their own consciences If they are permitted to succeed in the plot they have contrived, it will be a victory over the city and the rights of the people, the consequences of which ought to be considered It saves the necessity of any popular action now or hereafter. If done this year it may be next, and so on while the organization remains The present Council can perpetuate itself, and according to its sovereign will, in defiance of the wishes of the people, can legislate so that they alone shall control municipal action, till the city is relieved from the iniquity of such a burden by the interference of the Legislature But fortunately for the welfare of Portland, the engineers of misrule and mischief are mistaken in regard to their ability to complete their work The people are not powerless, even if obstructed It is still, under the charter, competent for the citizens to meet in their several wards and to choose inspectors, as in case of the absence of those appointed, and then the election goes on as usual. We trust that this will be done and that every citizen will feel it his duty, by the exercise of his privilege as a voter, to frown upon this attempt to perpetuate the imbecility which now curses our city organization It is not merely a question as to candidates—it involves the higher one of rights, and therefore ought not to be disregarded or deemed a trifle. Let the friends of the Union offer a good ticket and support it heartily, and we shall never again be troubled with such semi secession tricks as are now attempted to be played upon us

Honest Confession!—The Overland Press gives the following evidence of the deplorable state of society in Washington Territory —We hope the melancholy condition of things "over thar," will be speedily reformed, under Victor Smith and Dr Henry

The Major wants to know why there are no Turkeys and Bees in Washington Territory The Major has forgotten that these insects and animals always follow civilization, and as civilization has never reached these regions, ergo, we have no Bees nor Turkeys

Making sorghum sugar has succeeded so well that the Northwestern Sugar Manufacturing Company is to be incorporated by the Illinois Legislature This company has also secured the right of making sugar from beet root, in order that the proposed mills may be employed the entire year, working on the latter in summer, and on sorghum in winter — Western people expect to grow sugar sufficient to supply the entire domestic consumption

A Remedy for Sea Sickness—In all ordinary cases, if in dread of sickness lie down on the back at least a quarter of an hour before the vessel starts No position but that of recumbency on the back will do Let head, body and back become as it were part of the vessel, participating in its motion without muscular effort This precaution is often of itself sufficient It will be of little use to assume this position after the sickness has commenced. It must be beforehand

Richmond [illegible] papers say the authorities [illegible] have resolved to [illegible] the last extremity [illegible] thing has been [illegible] The [illegible] unless they can bring their men into [illegible] They could, at most, do nothing more than [illegible] the city

The Charleston Courier of the 18th says the British steamer [illegible] was [illegible] and chased by the blockaders but escaped and arrived there yesterday

Helena (Ark) March 26th—Capt Ryan and General Ross arrived last evening direct from Tallahatchie river Gen Ross had fallen back 100 miles from the enemy's works where meeting Quinby with his force the entire command returned and are now in front of Greenwood

The steamer Curlew left last night with a number of 130 Missouri Parrott guns

Two steamers were sunk in Yazoo Pass, involving a loss of 150,000 rations

Cincinnati March 26th—Gen Wright leaves for Kentucky tonight to look after matters there

Steamer [illegible] passed down the river with a part of Burnside's old troops to Louisville

Burnside has advices that the rebels who were defeated at Danville have possession of that town and are advancing southward

The Kentucky Railroad Company have made arrangements to transport a large number of troops daily for some time

An attack on Paris is looked for tonight Ten regiments have gone to defend that place

Refugees by hundreds are arriving from Central Kentucky Valuables of every description have been brought Northward It is confidently asserted that the Federal preparations are sufficient to meet any invasion Serious apprehensions are entertained that the great battle of this campaign will be fought during the coming season in Kentucky

It is stated that two thirds of the rebel army have come west to reinforce Johnson in front of Rosecrans and that Virginia will be abandoned

Skirmishes are reported near camp Dick Robinson, resulting thus far favorably to the Federals Our forces under Carter have the advantage of position There are rumors of rebels in several proximate localities but they cannot be traced to any authentic source

Murfreesboro March 26—Gen Crook commanding at Carthage, sent an expedition to Rome, on the Cumberland river, which returned last night bringing [illegible]8 prisoners

A deserter from Hardee's command came into our lines yesterday He reports Van Dorn, with two divisions and Forrest with one division of cavalry, at Cumberland Van Dorn was undecided whether to go to Mississippi or cross Duck river Indications are to day that he crossed the river

Gen Morgan to day has been demonstrating on our right

St Louis March 26—Gen Curtis has received instructions from Washington to consider the order to close up his official connection with the affairs of that department as withdrawn Other advices tend to confirm the belief that no immediate change is contemplated

Fortress Monroe, March 26—Fifty German families, who arrived from Richmond, report the prevailing belief in that city that the rebels will soon evacuate Richmond, and probably most of Virginia They bring no news from Charleston but say the rebels were expecting an attack daily They came out of the Confederacy under foreign protection

An order has been issued from the rebel Adjutant General's offering places to all officers resigning or who have been cashiered by courts martial, back in the ranks as privates

Washington March 26—A long roll was beat in Hooker's camp yesterday, in consequence of a report that the enemy had crossed the river in force This was doubtless founded on the massing of heavy bodies of infantry on the banks at the fords to prevent Hooker from crossing It was officially ordered to day that no person shall be allowed to pass or come into the lines of the Department of Washington on the south side of the Potomac, contrabands excepted

Several residents of Fairfax have been arrested by the Provost Marshal, thought to be wolves in sheep's clothing It is thought this will be the means of breaking up organized bands of citizens, stragglers etc

Efforts have been made at Headquarters to obtain an intelligible statement of the military situation of the Mississippi but reported telegrams of inquiry elicit nothing It is hoped that Farragut has passed Port Hudson with his fleet from Baton Rouge It is also hoped that Admiral Porter is in the Yazoo, though the route by which he got there is not easy to trace

Cincinnati, March 27—Several more regiments arrived here to day and others passed Louisville

Burnside received a dispatch from Kentucky to day stating that the reported number of rebels under Breckinridge is greatly overrated It is the impression that the condition of the rebels would not admit of the transportation of provisions necessary for a force of any size

A dispatch from Frankfort received this evening states that all is quiet there

The railroad to Lexington is clear Some 8 regiments of old troops have gone to Lexington from here to day and many more are going via Louisville

There are rumors brought by passengers, that Danville has been recaptured by our troops

Cairo, March 27—Memphis dates to March 27th are received The following is the latest news from Vicksburg The rebels were throwing shot and shell at the men employed on the canal but [illegible] no damage Heavy firing was heard in the direction of the Yazoo river, supposed to have come from the troops sent up Steele's Bayou The Indianola is reported to have been captured [illegible] is said to have been found [illegible] submerged 40 miles below Warrenton Another dispatch says that the [illegible] rebels and [illegible] On Sunday night a large [illegible] Vicksburg intended for Farragut [illegible]

California News.

San Francisco, March 2[illegible]—The savers of the Golden Gate treasure have secured, between $600,000 and $[illegible],000 They offer to compromise with all shippers at the rate of fifty per cent Several houses have made settlement at that rate

It is proposed to establish a Marine Insurance [illegible] on the principle of the London Lloyds The stockholders will embrace prominent shippers About $400,000 of stock is liberally subscribed War risks will be taken [illegible] all risks payable in gold

The English underwriters here have reduced the rate [illegible] three per cent covering all risks [illegible]

Legal Tenders [illegible] 70 72

San Francisco March 27th—The U S steamer Saginaw is to sail for a cruise down the Mexican coast The object of the cruise is only conjectured but it is rumored that the steamer has been placed by the Government temporarily at the disposal of [illegible] who will send her on an expedition down the coast against certain parties concerned in the Chapman privateer enterprise on information elicited by the investigation now being held at Fort Alcatraz This is all rumor

The Pacific Marine Insurance Company was fully organized this afternoon There are 100 shares at $5,000 per share 75 shares are already taken The balance are reserved for future distribution.

Spurgeon on the Proclamation.—The Boston Transcript says the following letter from an American merchant now in London dated January 21st, though not intended for publication has been furnished that paper The writer's statements are entitled to the fullest confidence We feel quite sure that our readers will feel much interest in the epistle

Last Monday we attended service at Spurgeon's great Tabernacle Every seat and aisle were filled before we entered There are seats for seven thousand persons although eight to nine thousand, it is said, may be got into the building I do not doubt that over seven thousand persons were present at this service—all well bred, good and respectable people, averaging equally with any of our churches Of course some of the nobility were there The shape of the hall is that of a double cube the interior is oval, with two galleries completely around the room, even behind the speaker Its acoustic properties are perfect. It cost $48,000—all paid for before Spurgeon would preach in it There is no musical instrument in the house but the hymns are [illegible] out by Spurgeon himself, who stands with his full figure before his audience with only a simple banister railing to rest upon

In appearance he is stout weighing say 225 pounds yet a good height and figure although very full in the face a clear complexion and dark chestnut hair, with small half whiskers He looks like a good man and I doubt not he is one In some intellectual traits he resembles H W Beecher, although less fiery or emotional There is nothing at all approaching to a ranting style His voice is powerful, sweet, and earnest, filling every one with the thought of his subject It is always gentle, yet strong and clear without any apparent effort He is young, not over thirty two or thirty five years of age—a remarkable reader and must have studied elocution thoroughly He is graceful I did not see a single awkward gesture. He spoke about one hour The whole service occupied about two hours The remarks were extemporaneous and were reported by a stenographer The audience all sang, and the volume of sound as it rolled up from seven thousand fervent voices was solemn and imposing as it was grand and powerful The hearts of a multitude seemed moving heavenward His prayers, which were in a supplicating, conversational tone were fervent and excellent He prayed to God as a child would ask of a father the words were not rolled out in the usual pompous intonations, common in the daily service of many churches here He prayed like a good man and no one could doubt the sincerity of his heart After opening his prayer, and praying as usual for his flock and matters near his heart, he said as nearly as I can repeat it, which I think is word for word, as I wrote it down at the time viz

"And now we would offer up a prayer upon a subject to which we have not alluded for some months Now, O God, we turn our thoughts across the sea, to the dreadful conflict of which we know not what to say but now the voice of freedom shows where is right

"We pray Thee give success to this glorious Proclamation of Liberty, which comes to us from across the waters We had feared our brethren were not in earnest and would not come to this Bondage and the lash can claim no sympathy from us God bless and strengthen the North—give victory to their arms, and a speedy end to fearful strife As lovers of freedom let us not belie our calling now that we know their cause we can but exclaim, God speed them " At this point in the middle of his prayer he threw up both his hands toward Heaven, and in the momentary pause a deep, low, sonorous and distinct Amen came forth from every section of the house Many an eye bathed in tears told how truly this prayer had met the hearts of his seven thousand hearers and followers

The Arrest of Brigham Young.—The Deseret News of March 11th gives the following particulars of this affair

On the 10th an affidavit was made before his Honor Chief Justice J F Kinney charging Brigham Young with having violated the Act of Congress by taking another wife Judge Kinney promptly issued a writ for his arrest and placed it in the hands of Gibbs U S Marshal The Marshal adopted the very prudent course of serving the writ himself without calling for a posse and accordingly waited upon the President only fortified by the process and with such civil authority as the law invested him

An immediate response was made to the writ by the prompt appearance of the defendant before Judge Kinney at the State House accompanied by two or three of his intimate friends An investigation was made of the facts charged in the affidavit, by the introduction of evidence resulting in the Judge holding the defendant to bail in the sum of two thousand dollars for his appearance at the next term of the U S Court for the Third Judicial District

[illegible] thousand dollars

We have only to say with Judge Kinney [illegible] As the Judge of this district he [illegible] it is his duty [illegible] we trust it will ever be the pleasure of the people to submit to and [illegible] the authority with which such law invests him

HENRY LAW,
Committee Third Ward

April 4th, 1863.

Mass Meeting —A call is published in to day's paper, for a mass meeting of the Union voters of the city of Portland, to meet at the Court House this evening, at 7½ o'clock, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the several city officers, to be elected on Monday next. It is hoped that every voter who realizes the necessity of preserving our city organization, and does not desire to be ruled by an egotistical set of "pizzerinctums," will attend the meeting, and assist in nominating men who will respect their oaths and attend to the duties imposed with honor to themselves and credit to the city.

Theatre.—To-night is announced to be the last night of the season, and Mr. G. B. Waldron is to take a benefit. Shakspeare sublime tragedy, entitled "Othello, Moor of Venice," will be played; Mr. Waldron as "Othello," and Mrs. Waldron as "Desdemona," other characters by the company. As this is a very familiar and favorite play, we shall expect to see a crowded house.

Escaped.—A gentleman from Olympia, W. T., informs us that the notorious character, known as Boon Helm, who was arrested some time since in Olympia, for the murder of a man at Florence City last summer, made his escape from the Olympia jail last Tuesday — A reward will doubtless be offered for his capture.

In Town.—Hon. T. M. Reed, Speaker of the late House of Representatives, Washington Territorial Legislature, is in the city on a temporary visit.

Resigned.—Mr. Thomas H. Smith having resigned the position of Secretary of the People's Transportation Company, Mr. S. L. Conger has been appointed in his place.

[illegible] Hastings & Co., Clothiers of Lick House, corner Montgomery and Sutter streets, have the largest and most beautiful store in San Francisco. This enterprising firm are now in the jobbing as well as retail clothing and furnishing business, and their stock contains all the new styles and novelties worn in New York, London and Paris. The well known reputation of Heuston, Hastings & Co., of New York, as merchant tailors, is a sufficient guarantee that every garment is of the best style, and equal to the best custom work. [illegible] who prefer their clothes made to order [illegible] send their measure to their house in San Francisco, and the goods will be ordered from New York returnable in sixty days, without extra charge. Their assortment of Ladies and Gentlemen's traveling Trunks, Valises, Carpet and Leather Sacks, &c., is worth seeing.

Storage.—The Fire-Proof Stone Warehouse, opposite the [illegible] House, is the only building, not made of wood, at the Dalles, where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other [illegible] that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that his charges are but $1 50 per ton per month storage and although storage in wooden buildings is $1 00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning noon and night, it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth, or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

WORDS FROM A SOLDIER.—The following is an extract from a letter from a soldier in Gen Denver's Division, dated Grand Junction (Tenn) Jan 27th

In reference to the copperheads in the North Oh, the curses that will rest on the heads of those traitors and cowards who are the means of protracting this unholy war! If they were the ones who had to face the enemy and bear the burden of the war, it would not matter so much if they were killed off for the country would be better off without them but unfortunately, that is not the case. For while they the cowardly rascals, are at their homes plotting treason and trying to destroy the Government our fathers gave us—the best the world ever saw—the brave and loyal have left their homes, their friends and all that is near and dear to them on earth, and offered themselves a sacrifice, as it were, on the altar of freedom and their country to restore and sustain the very Government those cowardly traitors are trying to break up and destroy. You need not be surprised if the war before many months, is brought into Ohio—yes, to our own doors—for the masses of the officers and soldiers are becoming so enraged at the Northern traitors, who are and have been for some time the cause or means of protracting this unholy war, that they swear eternal vengeance against them

Why, there are thousands of men in the army who would ten times rather shoot Vallandigham and men of his ilk than they would Jeff Davis himself, for they have been here for months in the enemy's country, have seen things as they are, and from their own observation, knowledge and experience, understand what is protracting the war. They know very well if it had not been for the sympathy and encouragement the rebels have and are now receiving from Northern traitors the rebellion would have ceased months ago

But I have not time to explain further at present; but this feeling is increasing and daily becoming more bitter and it makes me tremble when I think of the consequences if the Northern traitors persist in their present course. It would make your hair stand on end, almost, if you could hear the awful curses that are heaped on them by the soldiers

We commend the above to the consideration of the rebel sympathizers in this State and their unscrupulous organs

DEVELOPMENTS OF LOYALTY IN TENNESSEE.—A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, giving an account of General Reynolds' recent expedition to Lebanon, the county seat of Wilson county, Tennessee, says:

All through this section the people expressed a real, hearty, genuine Union sentiment that was peculiarly gratifying. Men, women and children united in welcoming us, and seemed overwhelmed with sorrow when they learned that we were going away again.—Their arms had been taken away from them at the beginning of the war; their property had been stolen and plundered at various times since; and for several months previous to our coming the men had been compelled to resort to the hills to escape the terrible conscription, which they really seemed to dread worse than death. Sometimes these unfortunates would steal to their houses at night time, for shelter and food, placing their little children on guard around the premises to give notice if any one should approach. These poor, persecuted, hunted men, speak of their enemies with inconceivable bitterness, denounce the fiercest vengeance upon them, and rejoice at every assurance that the National Government has determined so to carry on the war that its burdens and evil shall henceforth fall heavily upon the heads of traitors.

From Liberty the principal portion of the expedition marched to Alexandria, distant five miles. Here, also, the population is unmistakably loyal. The ladies greeted our approach with waving handkerchiefs, and one little specimen of the old flag was brought out, which had been preserved from the hands of traitors by folding it and placing it as a sacred relic in the family Bible. This, of course, was the last place in which a rebel would be inclined to look, and so the little flag was kept safely concealed until the advent of a Union army enabled the owner to take it from its hiding place. Meet was it that the emblem of liberty should be preserved within that sacred volume, whose teachings kindled in our fathers their fervent love for national and individual freedom!

A considerable quantity of stores were captured here, which had been gathered up by the rebels and deposited ready for forwarding

ADMINISTRATION AND GOVERNMENT.—Certain eminent "conservative" leaders are constantly proclaiming their loyalty to the Government, while they as vehemently damn the Administration. This is only another covert dodge to divide the North and weaken its hands against the rebellion. The distinction between the Government and the Administration is not very obvious to common minds, but these superfine patriots claim that they may be sound supporters of the former while they oppose every act of the latter. Like Colonel Ethan Spike of the State of Maine, who, in a close canvass which hinged on the liquor law, announced himself as in favor of the Maine Law but against its enforcement, they are in favor of the Government but against the exercise of its functions. But the heresy is even older yet. In 1794 Washington was soundly denounced by the sympathizers with the insurgents for sending a military force to quell the Whisky Rebellion. They drew a nice distinction between the Administration and the Government, and claimed to be in favor of the latter while they were overthrowing the former. Washington exposed and denounced this manifest heresy. He wrote to the Governor of Virginia that to foster a "want of confidence in the Administration at such a time, was to breed jealousy and distrust of the Government." This was Washington's view of the matter. He saw no distinction between the Administration and Government. But then Washington was not a patriot of the Copperhead species.—New York Tribune

MRS. SWISSHELM SPEAKS.—Mrs Jane G Swisshelm, who early in the Winter rose from her editorial chair at Crow Wing, Minnesota, and went eastward to do as a lecturer what a man may do with the sword, in a recent lecture said

Minnesota will never make peace with rebels, neither will they with their allies, the Sioux Indians. Whenever they get out from under Uncle Samuel's wing we will hunt them, shoot them, set traps for them, put out poisoned bait for them, kill them by every means we would use to exterminate panthers. We cannot breathe the same air with these demon violators of women, crushers of infants. Every Minnesota man who has a soul and can get a rifle, will go to shooting Indians and he who hesitates will be blackballed by every Minnesota woman, and posted as a coward in every Minnesota house

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK.

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

PITTSBURG, PA, May 1 1855.

DR J C AYER Sir I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me the fact is worth knowing. Yours with great respect, ED W PREBLE Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D C, 7 Feb, 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them. Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV CO, MICH, Nov 15, 1855.

DR AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here. GEO J GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev J V Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood, they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev Dr Hawkes, of the Methodist Epis. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best physicians the disease grew worse and worse, until by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, nor neglect them until no human skill can master the inexorable canker that, fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not do more than assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and thus afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their cure.
